Description

Title: Colin Upton Comic Book Collection.

Dates: (1986-2019)

Biography: Colin Upton is a cartoonist, painter, performance artist and radio-show host who was born in Winnipeg in 1960 and moved to Vancouver, British Columbia at the age of four. Upton spent his high school years in West Vancouver and later attended the Emily Carr College of Art and Design. For over twenty year, Upton has been prominent in Vancouver's vibrant independent comic community and has collaborated with other important Vancouver cartoonists in the New Reality and Drippytown comic book series. Many of his comics are printed in a "mini-comic" format which employs do-it-yourself principles to produce Xeroxed comic books with small print-runs. Often autobiographical, his work examines many aspects of life and politics in Vancouver.

Custodial History: Comics acquired from the author in various accruals in November 2006, November 2011, June 2013, December 2013, September 2014, June 2015, October 2015, May 2016, and May 2019 (4-23 to 4-25).

Accruals: Further accruals are expected.

Finding Aid: File list available, collection is catalogued. [Oversize, Call Number: NC1449.U49 1985]

Scope and Content: This collection contains the majority of comic strips, "mini-comics" and full comic books that Upton has written since the mid-1980s. It also contains a number of the New Reality series which was a collaborative project printed by members of the British Columbia Cartoonist's Society (BCCS) from 1985-1987. Alongside Upton's work, this series contains artwork by a number of other prominent Vancouver comic books artists including Don Fuller and Bill Schwarz. While few of the series within this collection are complete, the artist is currently seeking to acquire missing comic books from these series. RBSC also expects to acquire Upton's future comic books. In addition, the collection contains miscellaneous colour prints of Upton's artwork.
